McCarthy Warns Accused Red for Part in Hearings

WASHINGTON, Feb. 24 (AP)—Mrs. Annie Lee Moss, army signal corps employe, came before Senator McCarthy today and he told her he had a witness who "broke with the party Tuesday night" and named her as "a member of the communist conspiracy."

McCarthy opened a hearing by his senate investigations committee with a dramatic announcement that two communist witnesses "broke with the party" Tuesday night and agree to "give us all the information they had."

Then, questioning whether Mrs. Moss was "well enough" to testify, McCarthy warned her and her counsel that he would insist on grand jury action "if perjury is committed."

He suggested they leave the room to talk over whether she wanted to be a witness at this time.

Mrs. Moss, a gray-haired Negro of 48, wept as she and George E. C. Hayes, her counsel, walked from the room. She sat a few steps outside the hearing room while Hayes whispered to her.

Only Tuesday, Hayes had told reporters Mrs. Moss wished to testify and that her stand was that she never had been a communist.

He commented on testimony by a former FBI undercover informant that Mrs. Moss was a card-carrying red in the 1940s.

McCarthy asserted at Tuesday's session that Mrs. Moss handled "top secret" messages at the Pentagon. Later, the army came out with a statement saying she never has "access to the codes . . ."

The army said she had, however, worked in the communications center prior to Feb. 5 and in that job handled "unintelligible code messages, both classified (secret) and unclassified." It said she was transferred to another job Feb. 5 because of its own investigation.

In telling of the two witnesses he said "broke with the party," McCarthy said they are husband and wife whom he had subpoenaed Wednesday as "hostile witnesses."

Allyn Dingel, jr., Chosen as Winner of Oratory Contest Sponsored by Legion

Dingel, a senior, edged out Bill Alworth, who won second, and Kathy Merrill, who placed third. Miss Merrill also placed third in the contest last year. Other finalists in the Tuesday night contest were John Chapman, Dan Davis, Diana Kall and Bob Fix.

Speaking on "The Constitution, a Barrier Against Tyranny," each student was required to present a 10-minute prepared oration then speak later extemporaneously from four to six minutes on the 19th amendment to the constitution.

Contestants were graded by five judges on poise, personality, accuracy, effectiveness and oratorical qualities.

Dr. O. A. Fuller, general chairman of the event for the Legion post, was chairman of the contest.

While clerks compiled the scoring, Dr. Fuller introduced Mrs. Rose M. North, high school dean of girls.

Mrs. North lauded the speech contest and described the work done on it at the high school. Instructors supervising various phases of the contest also were introduced, then Mrs. North presented the top 10 runner-up contestants from each of the three high school classes.

A short musical program presented while the scoring was completed by judges included a violin selection by Beverly Miller, two songs by Gene Beaver, accompanied by Yvonne Kalick and two piano numbers by Lewis Bastian.

The winners were announced by Leonard Jacob, post commander.

Dingel's next step in the contest, which could lead to national competition, is the district contest. Winner of that event goes to a state contest.

Finalists along with the 10 runners-up from each class and their English teachers were guests at a banquet before the contest began.

Assisting Dr. Fuller were William Couberly, Ralph Smith, and Ralph Smith, jr., contest clerks; Robert Peterson, usher, and Henry Crow, timer.

Panel U[illegible] Minidoka to Make Fourth [illegible] School Bond Vote

RUPERT, Feb. 24—Recommendations to hold another bond election—the fourth—to solve Minidoka county's school problem will be made by the county's fact finding committee to the school trustees on March 8, Calvin Braegger, chairman of the committee, reported Wednesday.

Braegger said the decision to ask for another bond election was reached at a meeting of the committee Tuesday night at which time the information contained in a recent survey was studied.

Three times previously Minidoka county has tried for a bond election to build a new central high school and each time the proposal has been defeated. Braegger said his committee suggests the new school be built midway between Rupert and Paul.

While the majority of the old school districts in the county favor a site midway between Rupert and Paul, neither of those communities want the school built there, Braegger said. Should a new school be erected there, however, Rupert students could be transported with state aid since they would live more than one and one-half miles from the school. Braegger said a school in the country would give school officials more direct supervision over the pupils.

The committee also found that a site midway between the two cities is close to the future population of the county. Added sewer and water costs for a rural site would be more than offset by lower costs for the land the committee also ascertained.

Recommendations that a new survey be made of present buildings so they can be brought up to standard also is to be made by the committee to the school trustees.

The results of the house-to-house survey of non-taxpayers in the county have not been tabulated since only taxpayers will be able to vote on the bond election. Should the election be held and should it fail to pass for a fourth time, the results of the non-taxpayer survey will be compiled since non-taxpayers will be able to vote on a split of the district.

The committee will not be disbanded but will continue to work to back up the recommendations, Braegger said.

PALM SPRINGS, Calif., Feb. 24 (AP)—Two men who tried to visit President Eisenhower at his desert vacation headquarters Tuesday face arraignment on vagrancy charges.

"They meant no harm," Police Chief John S. Davis said of Carl E. Kinsey, 25, one-quarter Indian from San Bernardino, Calif., and John T. Ortega, 48, Mission Indian from a Palm Springs reservation.

Secret service agents turned the men over to Palm Springs police, who learned that Ortega and Kinsey were driving from Indio to Palm Springs. As they passed the Smoke Tree ranch, one said to the other:

"That's where the President is staying."

"Let's go see him," suggested the other.

Solon, Secretary Have Conference

WASHINGTON, Feb. 24 (AP)—Secretary of the Army Stevens and Senator McCarthy got together for a closed door conference at the capitol Wednesday.

The two men, who exchanged hot statements last week-end over McCarthy's searches for communists in the army, met in the office of Senator Dirksen, R., Ill.

Dicksen also was present and Vice President Nixon, then in an adjoining room, was expected to join the conference later.

The meeting prompted speculation that they were attempting to reach some agreement to avoid a public show down Thursday when Stevens is scheduled to appear before McCarthy's committee.

Earth Tremor Series Scares Mines Region

WILKES-BARRE, Pa., Feb. 24 (AP)—The second series of earth tremors in three days damaged hundreds of homes and broke up streets Tuesday night in a five-block area where anthracite mines honey-comb the earth.

The shock sent hundreds of persons, many of them in night-clothes, fleeing to the streets shortly before midnight. Police reported no one was injured.

Explosions Claimed

Several residents reported hearing underground explosions at the time of the disturbance. The Woodward colliery of the Glen Alden Coal company has hard coal workings 400 feet under the surface. The mines were closed after similar tremors Sunday.

The upheaval of the ground cracked foundations, walls and windows of homes and raised some sections of pavements a foot or more. Fences were pushed over. One garage attached to a home was pulled away several inches.

No Damage Estimate

There was no estimate of the damage.

W. J. Clements, state mines secretary, blamed Sunday's tremors, which damaged 300 homes in a nearby area, on cave-ins in the underground workings. However, President Francis O. Oase of the coal company said they "were not due to mining activities under that area."

The state, city and coal company have launched separate investigations of the tremors but little is expected to be learned until the mines clear of gas caused by the earth movements.

House Slates Cut in Excise Tax Program

WASHINGTON, Feb. 24 (AP)—House tax writers are expected within the next few days to approve legislation cutting federal excise taxes by as much as $1,000,000,000.

Reductions are scheduled to be made in the excises on furs, jewelry, cosmetics, luggage, women's handbags, admission tickets, light bulbs, telephone bills, travel tickets and a limited number of other items.

Cuts Proposed

Democrats on the tax-writing house ways and means committee proposed yesterday that these cuts be included in the big tax revision measure now being considered by the committee. But Chairman Daniel A. Reed, R., N. Y., ruled the proposal out of order.

Reed himself indicated, however, that reductions will be considered soon. He said he made his ruling "with the specific understanding that the question of excise tax rates and administrative problems will be in order at a later date."

Deadline Noted

Existing excise rates on liquor, beer, cigarettes, gasoline and automobiles will be scaled down automatically April 1 unless congress acts before then to continue them at present levels.

The committee is expected to accede to President Eisenhower's request for their continuation. But it tentatively plans to approve cuts in other excises by slapping on a 10 per cent ceiling on all such taxes.

Solon Says Reds May Have 'Goal'

WASHINGTON, Feb. 24 (AP)—Senator George, D., Ga., said today that Russia, by winning a seat for red China at the forthcoming Geneva conference on far eastern problems, may have gained her only real objective of the Berlin Big Four talks.

George, top Democrat on the senate foreign relations committee, said in an interview he regards this action as giving the Chinese Communists "a foot in the door" toward eventual recognition by the United Nations and possibly by the United States.

Expansion Program for Chest X-Rays Is Discussed at Conference in Gooding

GOODING, Feb. 24—Plans for a possible expansion of activities of the state's mobile chest X-ray unit were discussed in a meeting here Tuesday of the executive committee for the unit.

Meeting at the state tuberculosis hospital here, the group discussed the itinerary for the unit during the summer months beginning May 1. The committee decided to send the unit to a number of large fairs including Gooding county, the western Idaho State fair at Boise, Twin Falls county and the eastern state fair at Blackfoot. However, those plans are tentative, the committee observed.

Another plan considered was using the unit to make a survey of college students and large industrial plants. It would include taking of chest X-rays of all students and plant personnel.

Erwin Schwiebert, Caldwell, presided at the meeting in the absence of Leslie J. McCarthy, Lewiston, chairman of the committee. McCarthy was unable to attend.

Others attending were Dr. Stanley J. Leland, medical director of the Idaho department of preventative medicine and executive director of the committee; L. J. Peterson, administrative director of the Idaho department of public health; Frances M. Goodwin, executive director of the Idaho Tuberculosis association; James L. Houser, administrative assistant in the state department of public health, and Dean Hungerford, field representative for the Idaho Tuberculosis association, all Boise.

Also attending were the Rev. J. Wesley Miller, president of the Idaho Tuberculosis association, and Kenneth A. Tyler, medical director of the state tuberculosis hospital, both Gooding.

Dr. Leland reported on 58,295 chest X-rays made during the year ending Feb. 1, 1954. He said 410 persons were disclosed as suspicious cases of tuberculosis, 451 had cardiac enlargements and 390 others undefined chest pathologies.

'Fugitive' Appears To Testify During Warren's Hearing

WASHINGTON, Feb. 24 (AP)—A witness before the senate judiciary committee on Earl Warren's nomination to be chief justice was arrested by police Wednesday but was released to his attorneys under an agreement that he would return to testify further Wednesday afternoon. Chairman Langer, R., N. D., announced that the committee, after meeting behind closed doors for about two hours, had recessed then resumed its consideration of Warren's nomination for the nation's highest judicial office.

Shortly after noon, the committee had called Roderick J. Wilson of Hollywood, Calif., into the hearing room and swore him as a witness even though he previously had been described by the justice department as a fugitive from justice. Wilson opposes the nomination.

While Wilson was in the committee room, Capt. Michael J. Dowd of the metropolitan district police said he had been advised by police in San Francisco that a felony warrant had been issued for Wilson.

When the committee recessed its hearing, Dowd placed Wilson under arrest, but Langer told the police officer that the judiciary committee had voted unanimously to hear Wilson.

Dowd then agreed to release Wilson to the custody of his attorneys, after they pledged they would have him back before the committee.

Before that development Wilson got into a brush with capitol police, but all hands denied there was any "arrest."

Senator Langer, the committee chairman, called the capitol officers, as the Californian pressed his demand for a chance to testify. Nobody found a warrant at that time and Wilson himself said he then asked for protective custody.

Reaching the capitol shortly before a committee meeting on Warren's nomination, Wilson told newsmen he had put himself into the protective custody of capitol police. He scoffed at charges made by Rogers last week that he was a fugitive from justice.

"There has been a mistake some place along the line," he said. "Senator Langer has been told, as a result of malicious gossip, that I am a fugitive. There was a mistake all around."

In San Francisco, District Attorney Thomas C. Lynch commented "there is a grand jury warrant out for his arrest. Immediately after the warrant was issued he disappeared."

Committee Vote Cuts Potato Requirements

POCATELLO, Feb. 24 (AP)—The Idaho and eastern Oregon potato control commitee has scaled down its recommended minimum potato size because the eight-ounce minimum it recommended previously was taking too many spuds off the market.

W. P. Whitely, Oakley, announcing the group's decision to recommend a six-ounce minimum for both standard and No. 2 potatoes, said the earlier minimum apparently took between 20 and 22 per cent of the crop off the market.

"We didn't want that to happen and that's why we want to change," Whiteley said. He added the group had expected the eight-ounce minimum to remove 10 or 11 per cent of the crop from the market.

The smaller sizes will become effective if the secretary of agriculture approves the committee's recommendations. In the past he has followed them.

The standards were revised upward this year in an effort to halt sliding potato prices, but because of the large crop the price has stayed low.

Growers have been divided on the issue, but a poll taken by the Idaho advertising commission showed only 16 per cent favored the eight-ounce minimum for standards and 25 wanted it for No. 2s. The remainder wanted either a six-ounce minimum or neither.

In Boise, State Agriculture Commissioner David Stubblefield, who has taken no side in the controversy, declined to guess what effect the smaller size would have on prices.

On Jan. 1, according to the U. S. department of agriculture, the state still had on hand 20 million bushels of potatoes from the [illegible]-million-bushel crop.

Three Tipsy Driving Cases Are Reported

An out[illegible] brought [illegible] three of [illegible] speeding, one with [illegible] garding a stop sign.

Arraignment of Mrs. Lee A. Willis, [illegible] north, on a drunken driving charge was continued until 10 a.m. Thursday in Twin Falls justice court Wednesday to permit her to consult an attorney.

Mrs. Willis was freed on $200 bond following her arrest six miles southwest of Twin Falls on highway 26 at 6:25 p.m. Tuesday by State Patrolman Stanley Pace.

Her husband was arrested on a charge of drunkenness in a motor vehicle on a public highway and posted $50 bond. His arraignment also was continued by the court.

Ted B. Tiffany, 616 Wall street, paid a fine of $25 and $3 costs in Twin Falls justice court when he pleaded guilty of speeding at 60 miles per hour or more two miles east of Twin Falls Tuesday. State Patrolman M. J. Bays, jr., issued the citation.

Harvey Vader, Twin Falls, when arraigned before District Judge Hugh A. Baker in Jerome Wednesday morning on a charge of involuntary manslaughter in connection with the traffic death of Kenneth L. Emerson, Jerome, last Christmas eve, pleaded innocent and Judge Baker set 10 a.m. Monday as the time for trial.

In Burley, Ed Evans, 40, Burley, was fined $145 by Police Judge Henry Tucker for drunken driving. Evans' driver's license was sent to Boise. He was arrested after being involved in an accident at 16th street and Overland avenue Monday. His car collided with one driven by Stephen B. Ellis, Burley. Damage to Ellis' 1950 Nash was set at $200 and to Evans' 1939 Chevrolet, $150.

Howard L. Glassinger, Filer, arrested last week on a second offense drunken driving charge when his truck ran off highway 30, appeared before Judge James Gossett at Gooding Tuesday.

After reviewing the case, Judge Gossett and Gooding county Prosecutor Cecil D. Hobdey decided to withhold action.

Parry Denied Public Power Rates Motion

WASHINGTON, Feb. 24 (AP)—An Idaho Power company lawyer tried unsuccessfully Wednesday to exclude from the Hells canyon hearing testimony on how power from a proposed federal dam in Snake river would affect rates on the Bonneville power administration system.

R. P. Parry moved to strike testimony of Earl D. Ostrander, BPA comptroller, at the power commission hearing on Idaho Power's applications to build three dams in the river between Idaho and Oregon where the federal Hells canyon dam has been proposed.

Parry said Ostrander's testimony would inevitably lead into a discussion of the public versus private power controversy. He said it would be "hypothetical and speculative" to consider what effects the federal dam would have on a "mythical system including 30 or 40 proj-

Plans for Reich Rejected by Red

BERLIN, Feb. 24 (AP)—Soviet Zone Prime Minister Otto Grotewohl rejected Wednesday the western powers' proposal of a "little solution" for a divided Germany.

The communist leader told the East German parliament:

1. The plan of the American, British and French high commissioners to get together with Soviet Commissioner Vladimir Semyenov on trade, transport, travel and other complexities of the split nation is unacceptable.

2. The only "proper solution" is for all-German talks to be organized.

North Side Communities Hand Setback to Public Power Plan

SHOSHONE, Feb. 24—The initiative petition to put the state in the power and communications business received another setback Tuesday night by the North Side Communities organization.

Meeting at the McFalls cafe here, the organization passed a resolution opposing the move and recommended that persons read any petition presented to them on the matter before signing it. Members said the public should be informed as to the effect of the proposal, should it become a law.

State Rep. William Pyle, Gooding, pointed out that the petition is the first attempt in any state in the United States to take over power and communications. He said the state, should the proposal become a law, would have to spend $250,000 immediately for salaries and then raise $250,000,000 to purchase existing power and communications facilities.

If the state should become the owner of the power and communications facilities about 50 per cent of the tax valuation in the state would be removed from the tax polls, he added.

The organization also discussed dredging and advertising Idaho but took no action following either discussion. Malvin Pope reported that his committe wished to study the matter of roads for the newly cultivated areas in Lincoln county before asking the organization for a resolution.

The next meeting of the North Side Communities organization will be held at 8 p. m. March 23 at Dietrich.

Jordan Finds Merit in Plan Of Diversion

BOISE, Feb. 24 (AP)—Gov. Len Jordan said today he thought a suggestion that Snake river water be diverted onto the lava beds of eastern Idaho to use them as a "natural storage reservoir" was worth investigating.

His comment at a news conference was prompted by a release issued by Byrd Trego, retired Blackfoot newspaper editor who calls himself a "one-man Chamber of Commerce."

Jordan said he has thought for a long time that the idea had merit.

Idea Under Study

State Reclamation Engineer Mark Kulp said the idea had been under study for some time by Lynn Crandall, Snake river watermaster at Idaho Falls.

The proposal is based on the fact that the lava beds provide huge underground reservoirs. Water from the Little and Big Lost rivers disappears into them and rejoins the Snake in the Thousand Springs area of Hagerman valley.

Advantages Cited

Its advantage is that it would provide some flood control and evaporation-free storage, Kulp said, while its disadvantage is that such storage would not generate the power that dams do, and power would be needed to get the water back on the land.

It isn't known how much such a project would cost, said Kulp. It would involve diversion works and canals.

Idea Reported

Kulp said Crandall's original idea was to divert the water high enough along the watershed to turn it into the Little and Big Lost rivers. However, he said, the cost might be prohibitive.

Alva D. Garrison, 17, Shoshone Falls road, who paid a $10 fine and $3 costs in Twin Falls police court Saturday on a speeding charge, took statutory time when he appeared in justice court Tuesday on a second speeding count.

Local police issued the citation. They charged Garrison with driving 45 miles an hour in a 50-mile-an-hour zone on highway 30.

Another youth, Lynn K. Spackman, Twin Falls, lost his driver's license for 20 days and was assessed $3 costs in Twin Falls justice court on his plea of guilty of speeding.

Spackman was cited by city police for speeding on Second avenue south. They charged him with driving 35 miles an hour or more in a 25 mile an hour zone.

Stanley C. Bonar, 252 Seventh avenue east, paid a $10 fine and $3 costs in Twin Falls justice court Tuesday after he pleaded guilty of running a stop sign.

He was cited by State Patrolman Stanley Pace for failure to stop for a sign on Truck lane two miles north of the city.

Harold Patterson, Jerome, was fined $50 and court costs for reckless driving when he appeared before Shoshone Justice of the Peace Frank Dice Monday. His driver's license was suspended for three months with an allowance for travel to work only. Half of the fine was suspended.

The complaint against Patterson was signed by a Richfield citizen after Patterson passed three cars and a school bus over a white line Friday evening between Shoshone and Richfield.

Albert Martindale, Buhl, was fined $50 and $3 costs Tuesday by Gooding Police Judge Stanley Legg on a charge of driving without a driving license.

Martindale was arrested Monday and, upon investigation, it was learned he has two drunken driving convictions against him, one in 1949 and the other in 1952. Judge Legg also learned Martindale's license has been suspended by the state until Martindale is able to furnish proof of financial responsibility.

It isn't exactly known how long it takes for the water to return to the Snake. Experiments along that line are being conducted now with radioactive tracer elements. Kulp said it might take 10 years, but it was thought the bulk of the water might return to the Snake in two years.

Irrigation pumping on the Snake River plain, although it has grown rapidly in recent years, has not yet reached the stage where it has lowered the water table appreciably. Such a diversion might affect the water table in some areas, Kulp said, but a tremendous amount of water would be required to raise the table as much as a foot.

Injuries Fatal for Victim of Mishap

GLENNS FERRY, Feb. 24—Lennie Hubert Bostic, 71, Glenns Ferry farmer and stockman, died Tuesday in a Boise hospital as a result of injuries received in a tractor accident on his farm Saturday. The tractor turned over and fell on him while he was at work.

Mr. Bostic was born in Rouchfort, W. Va., on Feb. 21, 1883. He moved to Competition, Mo., and then to Glenns Ferry in 1901. Before becoming a farmer and stockman he was a sheepman, worked for the Oregon Short Line, ran a livery, transfer and coal business with his brother, Samuel T. Bostic, and was deputy sheriff for Elmore county.

Surviving are two sisters, Ollie Bostic, Glenns Ferry, and Mrs. Bess Beard, Orla, Mo.; three brothers, Samuel Bostic, Glenns Ferry; James Bostic, New Plymouth, and John Bostic, Competition, and three grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held at 2:30 p.m. Thursday at the Bey mortuary chapel. Concluding rites will be held at the Glenn Rest cemetery.

Parry Denied Public Power Rates Motion

ects" which have not been built.

Mrs. Evelyn Cooper, attorney for groups favoring the federal Hells canyon dam, opposed the motion, saying:

"Mr. Parry has been seeking repeatedly to draw an artificial limitation on the scope of the hearing and the scope of comprehensive development. His comments are revealing of the scope of his own case and show the lack of Idaho Power company's intention to integrate its proposed projects with the federal power system."

Parry retorted, "The weakness of your argument is shown when you attack your opponent."

John C. Mason, power commission attorney, said the federal power law provides the commission must consider development of waterways—not a single waterway. He declared "we are already in the controversy of private versus public development, which is covered by the act."

Examiner William J. Costello, denying Parry's motion, said: "The law requires the commission to know just what would be the economic impact of a federal dam on the existing system or on an authorized system."

"SECURITY FIRINGS"

The American citizen trying to make up his mind about the past and present extent of communism in the U. S. government needs clearer guidance from Washington than he has been getting.

Swimming before his eyes is that much-batted-about figure, 2,200, representing the "security firings" since the administration took over in January, 1953.

The recent treasury department disclosure that out of 130 "security" dismissals or forced resignations in 1953, only four were "disloyal persons" merely underlines the need for complete clarification.

As most people know, and Elbert P. Tuttle, acting security officer of the treasury, pointed out, a security risk is not necessarily a communist or subversive. It can be a man who gets drunk, who talks too much, or who has other personal traits which make him liable to blackmail by enemy agents.

The administration has not completely explained how many of its security firings were of this type and how many were actual reds or subversives. But since they were offered as evidence of a Republican "clean-out" of government, the implication was strong that many were subversives.

President Eisenhower since has suggested otherwise, and has promised to study the figures. The President must surely understand that the integrity of his administration is involved.

Close canvass of voters in 1952 showed that many were impressed by GOP charges of "moral laxity" and "softness toward communism" on the part of the Democratic regime. Naturally, Republicans would like now to prove their charges.

But fair-minded voters demand honest proof. They show no disposition to be satisfied by hints and implications, by general figures which lump actual subversives with other far less dangerous risks.

The matter takes on some urgency from the fact of declarations by certain reporters that the subversive total actually is a very small part of the security firings. It is even contended that administration officers padded the security figure by including names of persons who resigned voluntarily without any stigma, and some who never were fired at all but merely transferred to other departments.

If any of these contentions is true, then the President's embarrassment must be acute. For he can appreciate that the answer to alleged "moral laxity" is not to be lax with figures in return.

Even at the cost of considerable political pain, the administration ought to clarify its position on this issue. If it does not, it will leave the average citizen poorly served.

REDS' NEW TRICKS

It is no secret that the Soviet union is up to some new tricks, and that expansion of its trade with non-communist countries is one of the biggest. The recent Russian offer to buy more than 1 billion dollars worth of British equipment is potent evidence.

This offer, and any others like it, needs the most delicate consideration. Many important factors are involved.

To begin with, the leading allied powers are still agreed not to ship strategic goods to Russia, China or any red satellites. The current proposed purchase list must be carefully scanned to eliminate any items which might fall into this category.

Beyond that, it has been the policy of the United States and its western friends to develop some nonstrategic trade with red nations. Britain especially has been interested in cultivating such trade, because of its obvious dependence on exports for survival.

But it is perhaps a question just how far expansion of east-west trade, even in nonstrategic goods, should go. The west has no illusions about the unaltered Soviet purpose to dominate the world by one means or another. To interlace its trade patterns too tightly with those of the Russian orbit might be to walk into the spider's parlor.

On the other hand, we cannot sanely propose no trade at all. In the first place, some items which Britain and others get from the communist world they cannot get as cheaply elsewhere, or perhaps just cannot get.

Then again, trade works two ways. If we have dealings with the reds, they have a chance to influence them. There's an old saying that culture follows the line of trade. Interchange of political and other ideas cannot quite be barred so long as trade relations exist.

To the extent that the west trades particularly with the satellites, their absolute dependence upon the Soviet union may be decreased. The same goes for China.

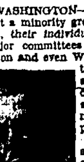

But we should not therefore conclude that we can wean any of them away by trade alone.

The interest of the free world suggests a cautious middle course. In each important trade decision, the test should be "balance of advantage." In other words: Who gets the most out of the deal? If we, then a deal can be made. If the reds, we ought to veto it firmly.

All we may fairly ask of the British now is that, with full alertness of all the factors, they apply this simple test to the tempting Soviet offer.

TUCKER'S NATIONAL WHIRLIGIG

WASHINGTON—Although Dixie Democrats represent a minority group of a minority party on capitol hill, their individual stature and high ranking on major committees enable them to influence legislation and even White House policy as effectively as the Republicans' ordained leaders and presidential advisers. They now dominate debate on the Bricker amendment, taxation, federal financing, national defense, farm problems and foreign affairs.

Ray Tucker

In a sense, they furnish the guidance once provided in the domestic and foreign fields, respectively, by the late Robert A. Taft of Ohio and the late Arthur H. Vandenberg of Michigan. When they spoke their mind on great issues, congress usually acted on their advice.

So it is with the southern bloc today. President Eisenhower cannot obtain enactment of the humblest piece of legislation without their say-so. Nor does their balance of power derive solely from the fact that the Democrats have an actual majority in the upper chamber, and are in a minority by only three votes in the more representative body.

ADMIRE EISENHOWER—Luckily for Eisenhower, these dominant figures are not fierce or sectional partisans. In fact, they like and admire him. When they differ from him, it is on principle. And when he did not carry their states in 1952, he rolled up a larger vote than was ever given any Republican nominee. They will probably support most of his program.

The Dixie members are listened to with respect because they have become authorities on their chosen subjects through long service and serious application to their legislative responsibilities. Unlike other sections, the South keeps the same men in office year after year, until seniority status alone propels them up the ladder of political power and rank.

Many years ago, John Nance Garner of Texas urged against the platoon system in politics. Returning the same men to Washington every two or six years has paid off, especially when Democrats are in control. But it also pays dividends when they are in the minority.

DIXIE DEMOCRATS' POWER — Thus it is that when Harry F. Byrd of Virginia says "no" to boosting the public debt limit from 275 billion dollars to 290 billion dollars, the Eisenhower proposal is shelved, at least temporarily. When Walter F. George of Georgia insists on some kind of check on the President's treaty-making power, it insures that the Bricker amendment will be approved in some form.

When Sen. Richard B. Russell of Georgia questions whether national defense cuts will weaken the armed forces, even his Republican colleagues ask questions which make Defense Secretary Charles E. Wilson squirm in the witness chair. Rep. Carl Vinson of Georgia, acknowledged authority on naval and military matters in the house, enjoys the same prestige.

Senator Russell and Sen. Allen J. Ellender, sr., Louisiana, are admitted experts on farm problems. If the Eisenhower-Benson formula for lower farm-support prices is defeated, it will be due largely to them.

MEN OF INFLUENCE—Several other Dixie legislators, although comparative newcomers, are attaining considerable influence. They include Russell Long of Louisiana, and Sens. John C. Stennis and James Oliver Eastland, both from Mississippi. An eminent lawyer, Stennis would make an ideal candidate for the supreme court, if "Ike" ever selects a Democrat.

None of these men is a bombastic fire-eater or a sectionally prejudiced legislator. They are sound and serious students of government, as well as skilled practitioners. They have nothing in common with such picturesque but embittered men as the Heflins, Vardamans, Bleases, Reynoldses and the late Huey Long.

MIGHT OF SOUTH AND WEST — With personal changes on the Republican side, the balance of power under Eisenhower has shifted from FDR's New York and Truman's Missouri cronies to the South and the West. Vice President Richard M. Nixon and Senate Majority Leader William F. Knowland are from California, as is Chief Justice Earl Warren. Sen. Eugene D. Millikin, GOP policy maker, comes from Colorado. And "Ike," although born in Texas, is from Kansas.

VIEWS OF OTHERS

McCARTHY CRITICIZED

Editorial comment on the Stevens-McCarthy controversy:

New York Times—The issue is whether congress has a right to interfere in the actual function of an executive department. If such a right exists, then the constitutional separation of powers is breaking down at this point . . . no legislator, no group of legislators, has the legal, let alone the moral, right to require government employes to violate their superior's orders or to bully and insult them when they do not do so. Yet we have seen our defense measures interfered with, our foreign policy handicapped, the plain intent of the constitution and the bill of rights contravened by congressional committees and notoriously by the subcommittee dominated by Joseph R. McCarthy.

New York Herald-Tribune—Secretary of the Army Stevens has done the right and necessary thing in calling a halt to Senator McCarthy's latest foray . . . Mr. Stevens and the administration have seen the incalculable harm which can be performed by Senator McCarthy's tactics. Secretary Stevens is defending the capacity of the whole government to function efficiently. There cannot be responsibility, or orderliness, or loyal service, or justice, while a congressional committee can carry on such depredations as Senator McCarthy has repeatedly led.

New York Mirror—Undoubtedly, secretary Stevens who is a fine man but new in this work, was misinformed by the brass and by those who have a vested interest in covering up errors. He is being sacrificed over an issue on which the senate ought not to compromise. Even senators opposed to McCarthy will have to take the position that any American, in or out of office, in or out of uniform, may be called before a congressional committee and is expected to tell the truth.

Atlanta Constitution—Sen. Joseph McCarthy's current attack on the army is perhaps the most dangerous of all . . . (his) wrecking operations on various government agencies. The President can do no other than back up his army secretary in this newest challenge to executive power. He had better do so with all the strength he can muster. The American people . . . will be most grateful to army Secretary Stevens for his decision to defy this man whose lust for power knows no bounds.

Denver Post—Senator McCarthy, the man considered by Len Hall, GOP chairman, as a "credit" to the Republican party, is making life miserable for President Eisenhower's secretary of the army again . . . We hope Mr. Stevens adheres to his convictions and that the senate of the U. S., as well as the President, stands by him. What is it this time? It is an act of raw demagoguery, another display of "conduct unbecoming a senator."

Kansas City Star—It's time to find out whether some seasonable restraints can be imposed on the free-wheeling investigative tactics of Senator McCarthy . . . with all his investigative power the Wisconsin senator is not a law unto himself. It will be possible to applaud the methods as well as the intent of his anti-communist crusading only when McCarthy starts respecting the rights and personal dignity of his witnesses.

DEPARTMENT OF ICY CALM

Take inspiration from the case of Lawrence Barrett of Eau Claire, Wis., whose house has been smashed into by an automobile for the ninth time. Take restrained inspiration, that is. As reported by the United Press: "Barrett again has asked the city to install a blinker warning light." Now, there is restraint for you! There is the minimum response to irritation. Plainly Mr. Barrett is the captain of his soul, the colonel of his tongue, the five star general of his temper. It is a good example for us. Next time the driver ahead takes a second or two—or even three to respond when the light turns green, we don't even intend to give a hoot.—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

POT SHOTS

NEAT AND TIDY

The tin can is essential to "modern" housekeeping. Ask any husband who comes home half-starved just about the time the Little Woman gets home from an all-day party or shopping tour. Or ask a fisherman who has walked miles up into the mountains and failed to catch a single fish.

But, like old razor blades, tin cans can pose a problem of disposal. You wouldn't think of just dumping them out in your front yard, would you? Yet that's just what lots of folks are doing!

Yep, they're dumping them along highways. And after all, isn't that the public's front yard? Quite a bit of this sort of thing has been observed north of the Perrine Memorial bridge. Lots of people don't think it's quite cricket. We suppose there's a law against that sort of thing, but it shouldn't be necessary to resort to arrests and court appearances.

If you don't want to drive out to the dump ground, why not just ease down an alley someplace and sneak your garbage into someone else's garbage can? But be real neat about it, huh?

SPRING IS SPRUNG

Yep, it's for sure this time. No false alarm and any snow up to three feet deep will be just another spring storm.

Doubtful? Well, we've received the first report of the first crocus plant being in bloom. We haven't checked it out, but the card says you can see 'em in the 600 block of Fourth avenue east.

If it's all the same to you folks, we'll wait for the first crop of dandelions before shedding three layers of winter clothing.

CONSIDER THIS YEAR

Dear Shooter:

No week-ends to confuse anything so far as that old tax deadline is concerned this year. You don't have to worry about whether the deadline will be one day or another. There's just no getting around it, after studying the calendar; that deadline for having 'em in the mail is midnight March 15.

There's another way of putting it. Folks have three more Sundays to work out their income problems with Uncle. Naturally, with all that time, no one is going to do much of anything right now. So that leaves two Sundays, March 7 and March 14.

And the calendar people should be commended for putting a Sunday just one day ahead of the tax deadline. Don't forget to tell the Missus to keep Sunday, March 14, all open. Break out the aspirin!

HOW THINGS APPEAR FROM PEGLER'S ANGLE

NEW YORK—A few years ago, I put forward the idea that the present institution of unionism was not the last word in labor relations in a free, self-governing republic.

Westbrook Pegler

I am now convinced that all that prevents us from smashing the AFL, the CIO and the "independent" predators is a sentimental fear on the part of lay citizens and public men that they would be charged with fascism if they advocate this desirable reform. That fear and inertia. Our people and our politicians are laggard.

Even laymen and politicians who find it impossible to say a single word of excuse for the abominations of unionism as we know it, are afraid to plum for state control of unions which obviously would be much better for the most people. They are afraid to advocate anything like state management of unions, because that, they say, would be fascism.

I agree. Yes, that would be fascism.

But I, who detest fascism, see advantages in such fascism over the present system which is fascism once removed.

The system that we now have is wasteful, inefficient fascism exercised by private and absolutely irresponsible rackets, under license from the government, state and federal.

There is an analogy in the hat-check concession in a night-club.

When you go in, a pretty girl checks your hat. When you come out, you lay a quarter on the ledge and she hands back the hat. You don't really have to pay her a quarter but "public opinion" has been built up against those who do not. It is an absolutely unreasonable "opinion" and you could easily demolish it in logic. But you would be called a cheap-skate and barred from the joint thereafter as an undesirable character.

The alternative is to carry your hat and stuff to the table and get the waiter to bring you one or more chairs to pile them on. Your date also will have some gear to park so you might need two chairs. However, that takes too much floor-space in expensive premises so the management provides a check-room and sells the "concession" to unknown persons, who hire the pretty little babes to rake in those quarters.

Now what is the analogy?

Well, our governments, state and federal, issue concessions, called charters, to racketeers to "organize" the workers into unions. What the racketeers, through their unions, do to the workers and the rest of us, after that, is supposed to be none of the government's business. But what they do is fascism at its very worst. It probably is much worse than government fascism would pull on us because government officials are sensitive to public opinion, whereas the union fascists don't give a dam what the public thinks.

The analogy goes further.

The owner of the nightclub gets a price for his concession but do you want to argue that the Roosevelt and Truman administrations gave these concessions for free? Because if so, you are too innocent to be trusted with the vote.

In 1936, John L. Lewis, through his controlled council of the Mine Workers, voted $500,000 of the miners' hard-earned money to Roosevelt's campaign fund, subject to draft by Roosevelt. He put the mahatma on a spot. Lewis knew his man and made Roosevelt send over signed requests for dough. Moose-jaw made three such taps for a total of $400,000, leaving $100,000 still in the damper.

Later on, Roosevelt sicked the internal revenue on Lewis and an operative, who frankly calls himself a hatchet man, ran up quite a report on John L's income tax situation. But Lewis had plenty on Roosevelt so the report on John Longwords was put to sleep.

Dan Tobin, the grand exalted fathead of the Teamsters, announced one year when there was a congressional election that he would spend out of the Teamsters' treasury just as much as it might take to elect a Democratic majority to support Roosevelt.

Tobin and Lewis were getting theirs, meaning not only the lavish emoluments, characteristic of fascist sub-fuehrers, but the great power which such vain creatures love even above riches. And they were clipping their subjects for campaign funds to keep in power the administration which had issued their concession and protected it.

• • •

You may say, "yes, but Tobin and Lewis got the Teamsters and Miners big raises in pay." That is right. And the hat-check babe takes good care of your hat, too. And a smile goes with the package. What more do you want for a quarter?

Yes, but the night-club gag is a gyp. They fix it so you have to check your hat. All right—and the government's union deal is a gyp, too. The government fixed it so you have to join the union or starve.

At this point we leave the analogy. The hat-check girl never comes into the joint to yell at some customer with his girl or wife, "that bum tried to pinch me" or anything like that.

But the union concessions have run an organized blackmail and brigandage for the last 20 years. They picket factories, stores and lunch-wagons with dirty lies, drive off customers, beat up and shoot non-joiners and even joiners, too, put stink-bombs in the ventilators and impose sales-taxes on merchandise, including food.

What they do is fascism at its worst, operated by licensees without the slightest claim of public recognition. They pulled thousands of strikes in war industries during the second war and ran up our bill by literally billions.

Now they have so much money that they are beginning to take financial control of Big Business by loans to manufacturers of clothing and truck-trailers and owners of coal mines. They have the greatest mass and source of loose, untaxed money in the world.

Why would it be "bad" fascism for the government, itself, to collect this easy money if you are willing to grant that it is okay for the unions to collect it? Why would it be "bad" fascism for the government to prevent strikes by executive decision if you are willing to defend the right of Jimmy Petrillo or Walter Reuther to pull strikes by dictatorial edict? Especially when the workers don't want to strike.

Is this the next thing in "labor relations?"

If it gives you the creeps, what else would you suggest? I am always interested in ideas.

Is That So!

By Eugene Burns

Pulse Rates Vary; Total Is Same

Tremendous is the variation in heartbeats of animals. A whale's pulse may thump along at 16 beats a minute; a frog around 50; an elephant 25 or so; a rabbit 210; while that of songbirds, bats and mice may exceed 1,000 per minute!

Eugene Burns

Each heartbeat consists of a contraction of the heart muscles which propels the blood with its nourishing materials into the arteries. (In man, there are about 12,000 miles of bloodways—a distance almost halfway around the earth at the equator).

As to be expected, animals which lead a very active life and are capable of feats of endurance have large hearts, proportionately speaking. A deer, badger, wolf, or weasel has a heart about 1/100ths of its weight. In contrast, a secretive rodent's is only about 1/250th of its weight.

A jackrabbit's heart, is almost three times as big as that of a sedentary domestic rabbit of just about the same weight.

Many factors speed up heartbeat. When with young, a female deer's heart must take care of not only her own needs but those of the unborn young within her—as a result, her heart must increase its output about one-half more than the normal amount. When a jackrabbit races for its life, its heart may speed up and pump four times as much as while resting. Airplane Crashes in Jerome City Limits

William Ralph Murphy, Jerome, escaped with only minor injuries when this light airplane crashed near the edge of Jerome Sunday. Because of a high wind Murphy was unable to land the airplane on his private field but in climbing back into the air he hit a warning sign at a railroad crossing. The airplane crashed, hitting an automobile and narrowly missing a house. It came to rest partially across the railroad tracks. (Jerome police photo—staff engraving)

U. S. Ranks Eighth in World's Standings on Infant Mortality

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y., Feb. 24 (AP)—The United States ranks eighth in infant mortality rates with Sweden having the best record, the United Nations reported today in its fifth 578-page statistical yearbook.

The yearbook said there had been a marked decline in infant mortality rates all over the world since the early 1920s, particularly in less developed areas.

Sweden led the parade with 20.1 deaths of infants less than a year old per thousand live births in 1952, the yearbook said. Then came Hawaii with 21.1, New Zealand 21.8, The Netherlands 22.5, Australia 23.8, Norway 25.7, Iceland 26.0 and the U. S. 28.5. Figures for Norway and Iceland were for 1951.

The U. S. figure for 1930-1934 was 60.4. The last available figure was 28.5, and the yearbook said the improvement was typical of that the world over.

The statistical yearbook, a bilingual report of varied information prepared by the world organization's statistical office in cooperation with authorities of some 130 countries also published these statistics:

The total world population was estimated in mid-1952 between 2,405,000,000 and 2,533,000,000. The estimate in mid- 1950 was between 2,350,000,000 and 2,471,000,000.

World industrial production rose 189 per cent in the two decades ending in 1952 and 250 per cent between 1938 and 1952.

There were an estimated 230,000,000 radios in the world in 1953, some 110,000,000 of them in the United States and almost a fourth of these in automobiles.

The United States had one physician for every 750 inhabitants in 1951. Indonesia had one for every 65,000 inhabitants in 1952.

Jury Awards Damages for Auto Mishap

Earl L. Bates, operator of the Valley Cab company here, was awarded a $1,231.73 judgment by a district court jury Tuesday afternoon in Bates' action against Allan E. Peterson and Walti Shilling and company.

Bates had asked $1,350 damages resulting from an accident involving one of his cabs and a Walti Shilling company car driven by Peterson. They collided on a curve in South Park in 1951 and Bates claimed it was caused by reckless driving on the part of Peterson.

The case went to the jury at 4:05 p.m. and the verdict was returned at 4:40 p.m.

The defense attorney opened his case Tuesday afternoon, presenting four witnesses, Lee Talkington, Ralph Cooper, Roy Lindell and H. N. Jewell.

Glen Hughes took the stand as a rebuttal witness for the plaintiff after the defense case was completed. Both attorneys presented their oral arguments before Judge R. W. Beckwith gave his instructions to the jury.

Nevada Oil, Gas Boom Continues

RENO, Feb. 24 (AP)—There was no letup today in the rush to file Nevada oil and gas leases. A. L. Simpson, manager of the federal land office here, said the jam when the office opened after the three-day holiday was worse than ever.

He said that whereas the original rush centered in the Nye county area where Shell reported its discovery of oil last week, filings now are on land in all sections of Nevada.

Simpson said tabulation of filing fees is running far behind the actual filing. But he said with last Friday's business partially tabulated the total already is nearly a million dollars.

Youth Arraigned On Assault Count

CALDWELL, Feb. 24 (AP)—The second of two youths charged with raping a 13-year-old Nampa girl was arraigned yesterday in justice court.

Gene Mathews, 17, returned from Twin Falls Monday night by Sheriff Dale Haile, was placed under bond of $2,500.

Haile said the Twin Falls youth admitted participating in the abduction and assault. Kenneth Roll, 17, also is in the Canyon county jail under $2,500 bond on the same charge.

Nampa Osteopath Faces Drug Count

NAMPA, Feb. 24 (AP)—Dr. Charles B. Waffell, Nampa osteopath, was bound over to district court yesterday on a charge of obtaining a narcotic drug by "deceit."

Justice of the Peace H. E. Bradley bound him over after hearing testimony of Donald Bringhurst, Nampa pharmicist, that Waffell obtained morphine by use of a prescription which stated the drug was for a Nampa teen-ager.

The youth testified Waffell hadn't treated him "except for a neck-cracking." The osteopath is free on $1,000 bond.

Fund Hike Is Requested by U. S. Bureau

WASHINGTON, Feb. 24 (AP)—Fred G. Aandahl, assistant secretary of the interior, said today the budget bureau has been asked to approve a request to congress for supplemental funds for the reclamation bureau.

Aandahl, asked about published reports that a request for 25 billion dollars in supplemental funds had been sent to the budget bureau, said he could not disclose anything concerning the matter except to say "a supplementary request has been made."

He said that regulations forbid discussion of budget requests except in answer to congressional inquiries under appropriate circumstances.

Congress is now considering the interior department budget for the year starting July 1. Some congressmen have suggested that the reclamation bureau also should seek some supplemental funds not listed in the budget.

Job Claim Proof Is up to Worker

BOISE, Feb. 24 (AP)—The state supreme court ruled today that it is up to Idaho workers to prove their eligibility for unemployment compensation in cases where their claims are challenged.

It denied the appeal of Archie N. Doran, a Boise shoe salesman, whose benefits were withheld by the employment security agency after he left his job in October, 1952.

The agency examiner ruled that Doran had been fired for misconduct, and the appeals examiner held that he had left the store voluntarily without good cause. Doran appealed to the supreme court.

Justice C. J. Taylor held that Doran was ineligible under either ruling, and added that the agency has "the duty of safeguarding the employment security fund from the claims of unworthy and ineligible claimants, so that funds will be available for the relief and benefit of those whom the law seeks to protect."

Cyclists Hit

HAGERMAN, Feb. 24—Paige Chipman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Chipman, and Jimmy Cain, son of Mrs. Merl Owsley, were hit by a car driven by Ivan Dunham Monday evening about one-half mile north of Hagerman.

Chipman was riding a motor bike and Cain a bicycle. Dunham said he did not see the boys until he was about 15 feet from them. Deputy Sheriff Guy Coles and Marshal Dana Gilmore investigated. The boys were not hurt, but their bicycles were damaged.

Pigs and sheep may live as long as 20 years.

Soil Care up To Farmers; Benson Says

NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 24 (AP)—Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Taft Benson said yesterday that responsibility for soil conservation should rest on the grass roots farmer.

In an address prepared for the National Association of Soil Conservation Districts, Benson also said the purpose of a recent reorganization of the soil conservation service was "to strengthen" the organization.

Up to Farmers

He said the final "responsibility for carrying out a sound, vigorous program of conservation rests with the people who own and operate the land."

The secretary defended an administration policy of flexible price supports on the basis that no single program could apply uniformly to the whole farm industry.

Leeway Needed

He said a workable farm program "must give the administration sufficient leeway to make timely changes in policies and methods, including price support levels, within limits established by law."

Such policies, he said, "should enable the administration to foresee and forestall new difficulties in our agriculture, rather than to attempt their legislative cure after they have arisen."

STATE LAND SOLD

BOISE, Feb. 24 (AP)—The state land board today announced sale of 1,040 acres of land in three Idaho counties for a total of $43,100. Two 160-acres plots in Elmore county were sold for $6,800 to Fred Church, Alice, Ore., and Mrs. May Hoffman, Alpine, for $8,000.

County Dairy Group Names New Officers

Other officers elected are Howard Harder, Buhl, vice president, and Charles Latham, Buhl, secretary-treasurer. Robert Holloway, Twin Falls, and Earl Heidel, Castleford, were elected to the board of directors.

The club discussed plans for the annual spring dairy show to be held May 31 at the Twin Falls county fairgrounds and other activities including the 4-H and FFA heifer sale in Jerome, the classification program and the state sale.

C. C. Anderson, extension dairyman from the University of Idaho, and Carl Harder, Buhl, reported on the state Guernsey meeting held in Pocatello in December.

Holloway was named as delegate from the club to the convention of the Southcentral Idaho Purebred Dairy Cattle association.

Canada Plans for Dam on Columbia

VICTORIA, B. C., Feb. 24 (AP)—Canadian officials have disclosed a long-range plan for nine dams on the upper Columbia river system in the British Columbia interior.

The first and key unit in the vast hydro-electric project would be a 400-million-dollar dam on the Columbia, at Mica creek, about 250 miles east of Vancouver.

The plans were announced by Provincial Lands Minister R. E. Sommers after talks with Gen. A. G. L. McNaughton, chairman of the Canadian section of the international joint commission. The commission is the United States-Canadian body that deals with international problems arising from dam construction on either side of the border.

The announcement did not say how the project might be financed. McNaughton, however, said the potential benefits are so great there should be no worry about costs.

Joan Sargeant gave a demonstration. The next meeting will be held March 5 at the home of Ann Thompson.

One Egg Hatches Into Twin Chicks

WEST HADDON, England, Feb. 24 (AP)—Separate twin chicks—the first on record in Britain—emerged from a single egg at the Michael Wicksteed hatchery.

Wicksteed spotted the twin embryos while candling the eggs in one of his incubators last week and was ready for the big event with half a dozen friends as witnesses.

The first chick to peck its way out came from the big end of the shell. The second followed two hours later.

The British Chick Producers association said Siamese twin chicks—joined together—have been reported in Britain before, but never a set of separate twins.

The chicks, from a white leghorn-Rhode Island red mating, have been named Maude and Claude.

Anti-Army Plan Confab Is Asked

PARIS, Feb. 24 (AP)—France's wartime Premier Edouard Daladier and eight other members of the French parliament who are opposed to the European army plan called today for a general European anti-EDC conference in Paris on March 20.

They invited representatives from six continental nations which have already signed the European defense community treaty and Britain to attend. The meeting apparently would be unofficial, without the backing of any of the governments.

Doctor Urges Chest X-Rays For Smokers

WASHINGTON, Feb. 24 (AP)—The American Cancer society's statistical research director says a heavy smoker "is very foolish if he does not have a chest X-ray taken twice a year"—although there is no proof smoking causes cancer.

Dr. E. Cuyler Hammond, the director, gave the advice in a copyrighted interview with the magazine U. S. News and World Report. And the magazine described him as smoking during the interview.

Dr. Hammond said a heavy smoker should take the recommended precaution "so long as there is even a strong suspicion that smoking causes lung cancer."

But he also said everyone, especially those over 45, should have an X-ray at least once a year, and he added:

"If you are a timid soul, then you should also give up smoking at least until the facts are known."

Dr. Hammond indicated the kind of facts he is after by saying: "If we should find that the death rate from lung cancer is much higher among heavy smokers and the death rate from other forms of cancer is not one bit higher among heavy smokers, then I'd say the evidence would be extremely strong that there is a cause-and-effect relation."

As for his own smoking, he said: the Shell discovery.

The announcement follows the first discovery of oil in Nevada last week by Shell Oil company, 60 miles southwest of Ely in Nye county.

Reports from Reno Monday quoted A. L. Simpson, manager of the federal land office there, to the effect he collected almost one million dollars in lease rentals last week in the land rush which followed

General Dean Tells of Offer To Help Reds

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 24 (AP) — Maj.-Gen. William F. Dean was covertly approached toward the end of three years as a communist prisoner in Korea with the suggestion that he switch over to the red side, take command of a corps and establish his family in Peiping.

"I cannot go into more details than this, but I'm convinced the offer had some substantial basis—but, of course, I had to go and spoil it," he writes in his concluding Saturday Evening Post series on "My Three Years as a Dead Man."

"When I was asked what I intended to do for the sake of peace when I got home, I said, 'I'll try to build up the military unit to which I am assigned in such a manner that it will impress would-be aggressors.' After that, not too much more was said about a corps for me in the communists army."

General Dean said he had to "be very foggy about this and a few other matters to avoid hurting people still in North Korea."

Dean said he took the reds up on a subsequent suggestion that he send a request to Kim Il Sung, North Korea's dictator, for the right to go to red China and, in the words of the communists, "see for myself the wonders of communism."

But the request was turned down.

"When you think about these things later, you wonder how your mind could have been working at the time," he said.

"But right then I thought: This may be an opportunity. The Chinese are notoriously open to bribery and people down there have been exposed to American dollars enough to know their value. If I can get to China, I'll be able to escape."

Dean said the reds suddenly launched a large-scale inoculation campaign in February, 1952, for "everybody, soldiers and civilians, adults and children," then spread reports that American planes were dropping bombs laden with germs.

"Even I got one shot," he said.

There after as more and more American jet planes appeared overhead, "the Koreans watched them with a brand new hate and fear."

The populace was so inflamed that "a downed airman had virtually no chance to escape."

"Although Korean and Chinese intelligence officers always raced to get him, civilians usually had captured him before either military force arrived."

Dean told in his concluding article how food and treatment rapidly improved as the armistice neared and of his own release Sept. 4, 1953.

Jordan to Speak For Alaska Meet

BOISE, Feb. 24 (UP)—Gov. Len Jordan will leave for Anchorage, Alaska, Sunday evening to address a Republican party meeting the following night.

The governor said he probably would touch upon the subject of statehood for Alaska. He pointed out that he had twice endorsed resolutions to that effect when they came before the council of state governors.

Jordan said his expenses for the trip are being paid by the Anchorage Republican club. He added that he plans to visit Fairbanks next Tuesday before returning to Boise.

Ain't It Going to Rain No More; No More?

Colorado Governor Says Rain Needed to Avert Big Drought

DENVER, Feb. 24 (UP)—Gov. Dan Thornton of Colorado foresees a drought of "frightening proportions"—more ruinous than last year—unless heavy rains or snows develop in the cattle states during the next six weeks.

"Four-fifths of the nation is below normal in precipitation," Thornton said yesterday. "It is beginning to assume frightening proportions."

The only hope to avert a drought situation "far worse than a year ago," he said, was heavy precipitation in the next six weeks. And the long-range forecast for spring precipitation "isn't favorable."

Thornton said that flying from Washington to Denver, he got a good look at last Friday's dust storm.

"From Omaha west, there was a yellow tinge of dust in the air," he said. "I fear it is the forerunner of what we're going to get.

"Maybe it (the dust storm) will convince people the high prices guaranteed for wheat have been a mistake, because it led to plowing up hundreds of thousands of acres of land which never should have been cultivated."

Thornton formulated a farm price program last year at President Eisenhower's request which would have the government guarantee farmers a price for their crops equal to their investment—but would not guarantee any profit. Profit would have to be earned at the market place.

Thornton, a member of the President's intergovernmental relations committee, said the committee soon will propose to congress a drought relief plan designed to aid stricken areas with lower transportation rates, long-term financing and cheaper stock feed.

$85,000 Asked for Drowning of Man

BOISE, Feb. 24 (UP)—A Boise widow sued the federal government for $85,000 today, charging that negligence of the army engineers led to the death of her husband last May 10 in the swirling Boise river at Lucky Peak dam.

William M. Kirk, a 55-year-old carpenter, dropped 70 feet from a scaffold and disappeared into a diversion tunnel at the base of the dam. His body never was found.

Mrs. Martha M. Kirk and her son, Kenneth, charged in the complaint in federal court that the scaffold broke because of failure of the army engineers to keep it in good repair.

GOP Leader Opposes Pact

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 24 (AP)—Sen. William F. Knowland, R., Calif., said last night the United States should not sign any pact with the Soviet union until Russian forces are withdrawn from satellite states of eastern Europe and free elections are held in these countries.

"To enter into a pact until there has been such a withdrawal," Knowland said, "would in fact condemn to permanent slavery behind the iron curtain the people behind those nations."

Knowland told the 45th annual dinner of the Pennsylvania Manufacturers association that "appeasement now, as at the time of the original Munich, is not the road to peace, but is only surrender on the installment plan."

Knowland repeated that he has "misgivings, which are substantial," about the forthcoming conference in Geneva to discuss a settlement of the war in Korea. He said they relate "to our particular position in the conferences with the Chinese communists relative to Vietnam before it is determined what kind of a Korean peace can be achieved."

Bazooka Flashes, Roars; Rock Above Road Is Not Dislodged

RENO, Nev. Feb. 24 (AP)—Anti-aircraft gunnery crews from the Nevada national guard used a bazooka Tuesday to attack threatening rocks overhanging a U. S. highway 40 landslide.

But the rocks were still there after the bazooka had gone.

Disdainful highway workers remarked the gun was about as effective as a child's slingshot.

This wasn't the fault of the guard's crack gun crew, however. The army refused to allow the use of high explosives or armor piercing shells for fear of harming workmen and sightseers.

"If we'd just had the high explosive shells, I bet we'd have brought some of that stuff down," said Sgt. H. E. Morris, Carson City, as the gun crew retired in embarrassment.

Morris and Sgt. John Flanders, Winnemucca, took turns firing 10 practice shells into the decomposed granite which dropped tons of rock and dirt onto the highway at the state line west of here Feb. 14.

The noise of the gun was deafening in the Truckee river canyon, but the big projectiles for the most part just broke into pieces and bounced off the hillside back to the highway. Occasionally they would start a minor rockfall.

Churchill Urges Regional Groups For U. N.'s Work

LONDON, Feb. 24 (AP) — Prime Minister Churchill told parliament today he has always favored organising the United Nations on the basis of smaller regional groups to promote international understanding.

The question came up when Laborite George Craddock, referring to the recent Berlin conference on Germany and Austria, asked the prime minister if he would not try to get U. N. broadened to transfer such discussions from regional groups to the world body.

Churchill made it clear he thinks it should be the other way around, saying:

"I certainly would not have made the United Nations in its present shape or form.

"I always considered it should be based on regional organizations which should aim at drawing the largest and most important minds from the largest groups of nations and bringing them to a sort of super assembly at the summit. This view I was not able to put into force at the time, and I have not had any opportunity since."

We, the Women

By RUTH MILLET

One of the braggiest women I know is also one of the best liked.

But here's the catch. She never boasts of herself. She always brags on others.

If you're a friend of Sue's you know how smart her other friends are.

She seems to have a knack for finding out what people are proud of but too modest to boast about and passing the knowledge along.

Instead of talking about other people's troubles and problems and mistakes, she prefers to talk about their good points, their small triumphs, their accomplishments.

And it works wonders. For it makes for cheerful talk. And somehow you know that if she tells the best about her other friends, she'll do the same thing when she talks about you.

What's more, that kind of talk often gets back to the person it was about. And how much kinder we feel toward the person who has been spreading something good about us, than about the person who has been telling the world about our shortcomings and faults.

So everyone likes Sue. And Sue, because she makes it a practice to look for the good in people instead of looking for their faults, likes most people, too.

It's a great temptation to most people to do a little bragging now and then. But Sue has discovered the one way that it can be done profitably, by bragging about other people.

If more people discovered that secret there wouldn't be such a great temptation to most folks to brag about themselves.

Care of Your Children

By ANGELO PATRI

The bad behavior of a part of our youth population is giving grave concern to every thoughtful man and woman in the country and what to do about it is the most difficult of decisions. Certainly, juvenile delinquency have made little headway.

We thought that new housing was the answer. Give these children a clean house, fresh air, they will live up to the new environment! But one such housing development in one city had to be called because the children, not really children but adolescent youths, were breaking the windows and destroying the fixtures. Why?

As I see it these young people feel they are not acceptable to the people, that includes young people of their own age, they see about them dressed in better clothes, equipped with better manners and the things the shop windows display. These young people and their elders pass these others without seeing them but the others see them and feel their isolation. Isolation breeds resentment so the windows are broken.

What is to be done? How can these young people become acceptable? They must live through this stage of their development, learn some way of becoming members of the group they long to join. But how? That is what is giving the schools such a hard time. The teachers see the needs of these children but to teach and train them so as to meet these needs seems almost impossible. Yet it is being done.

Slowly but surely these unfortunate young people are learning the fundamentals of decent living. It may take a generation or two to acquire the attitudes, the abilities and the acceptance they crave, meantime the school will have to deal with them patiently, with faith and hope, because they, too, are American citizens.

It would be good if we could have more help from the government in the matter of supplying buildings, teachers and equipment because education is the only force we can employ in making these young people acceptable in their own eyes and as well as ours; it would seem the duty of the authorities to give the schools every possible assistance. Men cannot live by bread alone. It is not so much the material things that these young people need, as it is the things of the spirit. Education by school, church and home can supply that essential quality.

To the beginning lying is often an excuse for wrongdoing, but parents should search for the cause and put an end to lying before it becomes a dangerous habit. In leaflet P-15, Dr. Patri tells how to do this. To obtain a copy, send 10 cents in coin to him, c/o Times-News, P. O. Box 99, Station O, New York 19, N. Y.

Spanning Straits

Ranking with the world's largest spans, the proposed Mackinac straits bridge will link Michigan's two peninsulas, as shown in sketch above. Financed by the sale of revenue bonds, the $30-million-dollar bridge is scheduled for completion in November 1957. When finished, it will be 26,444 feet (over five miles) in length, and will have a 48-foot roadway. With a central span of 3,800 feet, it will rank second only to the Golden Gate bridge with its span of 4,200 feet. Towers 522 feet high will support the suspension cables. Minimum clear height above water at the center will measure 148 feet. The bridge will require the work of over 1,000 men before it's open to traffic.

Orofino's Mayor To Plug for High Clearwater Dam

LEWISTON, Feb. 24 (AP)—Orofino's Mayor A. B. Curtis is going to Washington, D. C., armed with U. S. forest service figures which he says "prove beyond any question that any effect of the high dams on the Clearwater river system would benefit wildlife."

Armed with voluminous reports and resolutions to gain federal approval of two high dams at Bruce's Eddy and Penny cliff, Curtis is the envoy of the Orofino Chamber of Commerce's water resources committee.

He will testify before the board of engineers for rivers and harbors Friday when the board opens its review on recommendations from district and division offices of the corps of army engineers. The corps has recommended including the two dams in the main control plan of Northwest river development charted in its "308" report.

Wildlife leaders and the Nez Perce Indian tribe have objected to the proposed dams on the grounds they would flood winter ranges for about 30,000 elk and destroy migratory runs of steelhead salmon.

Huskies Drop Red Devils From Southside Tourney; Castleford Defeats Kimberly

HANSEN, Feb. 24—The Hansen Huskies dropped Murtaugh from the southside class B sub-district tournament here Tuesday in a tight 60-58 game. The loss was the second for the Red Devil five and eliminated them from further tournament play. In the other game, the Castleford Wolves downed the Kimberly Bulldogs 48-41 for their first tourney win. The Wolves drew a bye in the opening-night round.

O. Pryor was the big gun in the Hansen attack as he hit the buckets for a total of 11 points on one field goal and nine charity tosses. Barkes was high for the Red Devils with 14 markers.

The Huskies jumped to an early, first-quarter lead and at the end of the first eight minutes led by 17-12.

The Huskies kept up the pressure during the second quarter and left the floor at the intermission with a 32-27 edge. Murtaugh began to close the gap in the third period and entered the final period of play trailing by only three points.

The Huskies, however, staved off a late rally to record the win.

The Castleford Wolves had an equally rough time in racking up the win over the Kimberly Bulldogs.

Trailing 10-12 at the end of the first period of play, Castleford rallied in the second period and at the half led 24-21.

They kept the three-point edge during the third period and hit for 12 points in the final period to ice the tilt.

Bob Conrad topped the Castleford scoring with 12 points on three field goals and six free throws.

Bill Clements was top scorer for the Bulldogs with 10 markers.

In Wednesday night's action, Hansen will meet Kimberly in a game that will see one of the teams eliminated. The Vikings meet the Castleford Wolves in the other game. Both of these clubs are undefeated.

Yanks Sell Vic Raschi To Cardinals

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla., Feb. 24—Vic Raschi, veteran member of the New York Yankees' "big three" pitching staff, was sold to the St. Louis Cardinals Tuesday for $75,000 and two minor league players after he was surprisingly waived out of the American league.

The 34-year-old righthander (he'll be 35 on March 28) had incurred the resentment of George Weiss, Yankee general manager, by his attitude during a holdout campaign. Raschi, a Yankee all his baseball life, ignored a contract, reportedly calling for a 25 per cent cut on his $40,000 salary for 1953.

Manager Eddie Stanky of the Cards was "tickled silly" about the deal that give him another dependable starter.

"I had only Gerry Staley and Harvey Haddix to call starters," he said. "Now I have three."

August Busch, jr., owner of the Cards, was all smiles as he appeared at the Cards' practice field, decked out in a St. Louis uniform for his regular morning workout.

Weiss, announcing the deal, did not mention any exact amount of money. He said "considerable cash" was involved. It was learned from other sources that the cash was $75,000.

Dick Meyer, Cards' general manager, said two players to be agreed upon later will go to the Yankees. He said they would be men "capable of playing triple A ball."

Raschi didn't know about the deal until informed by a photographer as he returned from the fishing docks at Passe-a-Grille on the St. Petersburg beaches.

He appeared almost stunned by the news.

"I regret leaving all my friends with the Yankees," he said. "I have been with them since I was 16 when I signed an agreement as a high school freshman at Springfield, Mass. They sent me through William and Mary."

Raschi confirmed Weiss' statement that he had not answered a letter from the club and made no effort to contact the management.

On the other side of the picture, however, Raschi admitted Weiss was a hard man to do business with—but he didn't want to become involved in any controversy with his old boss.

Raschi huddled with Card officials later in the day and came to terms, reportedly at the $40,000 figure the Yanks paid him last year.

Shoshone Indians Blast Hailey; Richfield Tops Dietrich 54-45

RICHFIELD, Feb. 24—The Shoshone Indians blasted the Hailey Wolverines 58-45 to post their second straight victory in the northside class B sub-district tournament which entered its second night here Tuesday.

Richfield downed the Dietrich Blue Devils 54-45 in the other game of the evening.

The Wolverines from Hailey took an early lead in their tilt with the Shoshone five and at the end of the first period of play held an 11-8 edge. The Indians began to find the range in the second period and drew to within two points of the Wolverines as the half ended.

In the third period, with Elwin Webb and Teddy Burgess burning the nets with everything they threw, the Indians forged to the lead and were ahead 44-37 entering the final eight minutes.

Shoshone countinued to pile it on in the fourth quarter as they tossed through an additional 14 points to wrap up the game.

Webb hit for 18 points for the winning Indians while Burgess walked off with high-scoring honors with 20 markers. Charles Brockway was high for the Wolverines with 12 markers.

A 17-point second period surge by Richfield overtook the Dietrich Blue Devils who were never in the game after that period.

Dietrich started fast and at the end of the initial frame of play led Richfield by a 12-8 margin. Richfield found the range in the second period to toss 17 points through the hoops and take a 25-14 lead at the half.

Vaden and Ward topped the scoring for the Richfield team with Ward notching 14 points and Vaden 13. Ernie McClure was high for the Blue Devils with 17 markers.

In Wednesday night's action, Hailey will play Dietrich and the Carey Panthers will play Bellevue.

Washington State Cougars Scuttle Idaho Vandals' Hopes for Crown

PULLMAN, Wash., Feb. 24 (AP)—The Washington State Cougars took an early lead and held it all the way Tuesday night in whipping Idaho 56-44 to end the Vandals' hope for the northern division Pacific Coast conference basketball title.

The game wound up the four-game series between the two schools with a 2-2 tie.

Tuesday night, as before, it was the Cougar zone defense that held down the Vandals, allowing them only 17 points during the first half. They began to crack through it during the third period with Dwight Morrison hitting the basket steadily, to close within four points of the pacesetters. But that was as close as they ever got.

Ron Bennink led the way for the Cougars, sinking 21 points, 11 of them in the final quarter when he took over almost the entire offense for WSC.

The Cougars played a deliberate game, taking only 47 shots at the hoop, but they made good on 18 per cent of them, for a net of one more field goal than the Vandals who tried 57 times from the floor.

GIANTS SET GAME

Landy Plans Further Tries At Mile Mark

MELBOURNE, Feb. 24 (AP)—John Landy, the speediest butterfly chaser in history, ran the mile in 4:02.6 Tuesday and said he would take two more shots at the 4-minute mark before the Australian season ends.

Landy, who spends his spare time sprinting over the countryside with his butterfly net, changed his mind after previously declaring Tuesday's race would be his last for a while.

He said he was still pondering offers to race in the United States and Europe this summer and would make no decision for another two weeks.

"I finished very fresh and I felt it was the best run I had put up," the slender agricultural student said.

Landy has run the mile faster on three other occasions. In December, 1952, he was timed in 4:02.1. Last December he trimmed it to 4:02 flat and last month he ran it in 4:02.4. The record is 4:01.4 by Gunder Haegg, Sweden, but no one ever has run under 4:03 as often as the Australian flyer.

Parnell Missing From Bosox Camp

SARASOTA, Fla., Feb. 24 (AP)—Southpaw pitcher Mel Parnell again was among the missing Tuesday and Boston Red Sox Manager Lou Boudreau expressed mystification.

"I misunderstood when I said that Parnell was en route," he told baseball writers. "As I understand now Joe (General Manager Cronin) hasn't heard from him recently. Two or three days extra work would help Parnell."

Baron Leone Pins Hayamaka

Baron Michele Leone, "world's junior light-heavyweight champion," defeated Sugy Hayamaka in the featured event of Tuesday night's grappling card at Radio Rondevoo.

Leone copped the first fall with a hangman's hold and the third and deciding fall with body drops and a press. Hayanaka took the second fall.

In a one-hour, best two-of-three falls, the tag team of Leo Wallick and Carl Gray defeated Ohico Banales and Hickson.

Gray came back in a one-fall, 30-minute battle to defeat Bill Fletcher in 19 minutes with a half crab.

ALSTON MEETS BUMS

VERO BEACH, Fla., Feb. 24 (AP)—Walter Alston, new Brooklyn manager, met his charges for the first time Tuesday and announced that a one-workout-per-day program will begin Wednesday morning.

Local Keglers Leading in State Tourney

CALDWELL, Feb. 24 (AP)—Charlie Carpenter, Caldwell, bowled a sizzling 648 to move into a first place tie Tuesday night in the handicap singles competition of the Idaho state bowling tournament.

Carpenter, with a 105 handicap, could have taken the lead for himself, but he flatted the last two frames. Jim Dunbar, Caldwell, bowled the same score Monday night with an 85 handicap.

Another Caldwell bowler, Dyke Ishibashi, moved into third with a 645 on a 72 handicap. Owen Wood, Rexburg, is fourth with 644.

With the tournament scheduled to last through March 7, the bowlers have now completed 164 of the 680 singles, 100 of 345 doubles, and 48 of 156 team matches. The leaders are:

Wendell Trojan[s] Pilots Post Eas[y] Sub-District Wi[ns]

HAGERMAN, Feb. 24—The Glenns Ferry Pilots ... an opening-round bye in the first round, walloped the ... field Mushers 58-36 in the second night's play of the ... Hill class B sub-district tourney. The Wendell Trojans ... up with their second win of the tourney as they blasted the Bliss Bears 59-36 in the other game.

The Pilots had little trouble in rolling to their first tourney win as D. Bloom and Rash paced the scoring with 12 markers each. Jay Lee and Dean Jewett had eight points for the Mushers but top Fairfield scoring honors went to Jerry Moon who potted nine tallies.

The Pilots wasted little time in setting up the win as they jumped to an early first-quarter lead of 16-4. They continued to pile it on in the second period and at the end of the first half held a comfortable 31-14 edge.

The Pilots continued the rampage in the third and fourth quarters to notch the easy win.

Dick Looney was the big gun for Wendell as the Trojans racked up their second straight win of the tourney by a 59-36 margin over the Bliss Bears.

Looney found the range for 13 points on six field goals and one free throw. Billy Dorman was high for the Bears with 11 tallies.

Wendell, by virtue of its win, has already clinched a spot in the championship game on Thursday. The Trojans will meet the Glenns Ferry Pilots.

On Wednesday night, Bliss will meet Gooding State and Hagerman will tangle with the Fairfield Mushers.

LDS Meet for Blaine's Stake Held at Carey

CAREY, Feb. 24—Short talks by teen-age members of the Blaine stake and addresses by two church leaders from Salt Lake City highlighted the Blaine LDS stake quarterly conference at Carey Sunday. More than 500 persons attended.

The visiting speakers were Thorpe B. Isaacson, member of the presiding bishopric, and William T. Lawrence, member of the church welfare committee.

The opening address of the conference was given by Valdo Benson, state president. He advised people to show continued respect and devotion to their parents as long as they live.

Music was provided by a youth chorus directed by Kay Barney and accompanied by Don Dilworth, both Carey.

Welfare and priesthood leadership meetings were held Saturday evening at the Richfield chapel. Both meetings featured Bishop Isaacson and Elder Lawrence as speakers. Other talks were given by Lorin Ivie and Lewis Peck, Carey, and Neil Bowman and Roy Hubert, Dietrich.

Sunday evening meetings were held in each ward of the stake under the direction of ward MIA leaders. The Carey meeting, conducted by Garth Cook, was in the form of a fireside meeting. Keith Hansen, Shelley, spoke.

The general theme of the teen age speakers, whose talks were delivered during the morning session, was the benefits to be derived through priesthood activities. Youth speakers were Janet Peck, Shoshone; Steve Shaffer, Hailey; Allen Thorne, Shoshone; Larry Schenk, Richfield, and Ordell Merritt, Shoshone.

Joseph Robertson, Dietrich, recently released missionary to the north California mission, reported on his missionary activities. The opening prayer for the first meeting was given by Joe Dilworth, Carey, and the closing prayer by Stanford Ward, Dietrich.

Speakers during the afternoon session included the stake president's counselors, Ward Rawson, Shoshone, and Cloyd Mecham, Carey; stake clerk, Berle Cameron; wives of the stake presidency, Mrs. Valdo Benson, Mrs. Ward Rawson and Mrs. Cloyd Mecham; Donna Rose Rainey, Hailey; Mrs. Cecil Olsen, Carey; Verd Murdock, Carey; Elmo Patterson, Richfield, and Ferrin L. Manwill, Richfield. Prayers were offered by Garry Fehlman and R. J. Miller, Richfield.

FALSE TEETH That Loosen Need Not Embarrass

Many wearers of false teeth have suffered real embarrassment because their plate dropped, slipped or wobbled at just the wrong time. Do not live in fear of this happening to you. Just sprinkle a little FASTEETH, the alkaline (non-acid) powder, on your plate. Hold false teeth more firmly, so they feel more comfortable. Does not sour. Checks "plate" odor (denture breath). Get FASTEETH at any drug counter.
